

ARMY COLLEGE OF NURSING, JALANDHAR CANTT LAMP LIGHTING CEREMONY

Date: - 19 Jan 2024

Time: - 12:00 - 01:00 PM

Venue: - Ashoka Hall (Multipurpose Hall)

Army College of Nursing organised Lamp Lighting Ceremony and Oath Taking event for the 1st-semester B.Sc Nursing students in the presence of chief guest Brig Kuldeep Kumar Ashta (Director), Col. Tapasi R. Barman (Principal Matron), Prof. (Dr.) P. Vadivukkarasi (Principal), Col H. S. Phagura (Registrar) and all the academic and non-academic staff members. The ceremony commenced with the symbolic lighting of lamps, a gesture representing the pursuit of knowledge and enlightenment in the nursing profession. Following the lamp lighting, students took the Florence Nightingale Pledge. The symbolism behind the lighting of lamps and the recitation of the oath reinforced the students' commitment to upholding the highest standards of nursing care. As they embark on their academic journey, the students carry with them the inspiration and guidance imparted during this significant ceremony.

