Time:- 11:00AM - 12:00 PM

Venue:- Obstetrics & Gynae Ward, Military Hospital

Audience:- Mothers of New born babies

Department of Child Health Nursing, Army College of Nursing celebrated National Newborn Care week in Collaboration with Military Hospital Jalandhar, Cantt from 15 November to 21 November 2023 under the theme “Safety, Quality and Nurturing care - Birth Right of Every Newborn”. The main goal is to create awareness among the public on essentials of new born care. Theme opening was done by Col Tapasi R Barman (Principal Matron, MH, JRC) and Mrs Priyanka, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Child Health Nursing). Students of BSc (N) III year gave Health education to the mothers of new born babies through Posters and Demonstration. They emphasis on the topics such as Kangaroo Mother Care, Breastfeeding, Immunization and Care of Newborn and Mother. All the mothers listened and understood the topic very carefully. The event was a huge success.
